RICHMOND, VA: Sheriff Antionette V. Irving and the Richmond City Sheriff's Office are hosting its 5th Annual Day of Grace, Faith, & Hope. This event occurs on New Year's Day, Saturday, January 1, 2022, from 12 noon to 1 pm at the Richmond City Justice Center located at 1701 Fairfield Way, Richmond, Virginia.

People of all faiths are welcome to participate as community leaders lift up words of inspiration and prayer for the nation, our Commonwealth, the residents housed at the jail, and all the families impacted by those incarcerated there.

According to Sheriff Irving, "The past two years have been challenging for all of us as we continue to fight against the pandemic and we have also had an increase in violent crimes in our communities here in Richmond. This event is an opportunity for us to come together as one community in unity as we usher in the New Year together. It is also a time for us to offer support to each other."

This event will take place outside this year with community leaders, law enforcement and public safety officers, faith leaders, and guests walking around the entire property together in prayer and providing words of inspiration.

Due to the increase in coronavirus cases, guests are encouraged to wear masks at this public event.
