FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
February 26, 2020

Dr. Antionette V. Irving and the Richmond City Sheriff's Office will host Lt. Governor Justin Fairfax for The 2020 National Justice Summit on this coming Saturday, February 29th from 4pm – 6pm. The summit will be held at the Richmond City Justice Center located at 1701 Fairfield Way. This event is open to the public, a Photo ID will required.

Featured speakers will include Secretary of Public Safety and Homeland Security Brian Moran, Director of the Department of Juvenile Justice Valerie Boykin, Director of the Department of Corrections Harold Clarke, award-winning scholar Norfolk State University Professor Dr. Colita Fairfax, and the National Spokesperson for Rainbow/PUSH Coalition Jonathan Jackson, and the noted Strategist Dr. Reneé Carr.

We will be discussing justice reform issues including public safety, pardons and expungements, wrongful convictions, due process, sentencing reform, dismantling the school-to-prison pipeline, confronting racial bias, disparate policing policies, mandatory minimum sentencing and legislation and policy changes that will make the Commonwealth of Virginia a better, fairer and safer place to live.
