SHERIFF'S OFFICE CONTINUES PARTNERSHIP

RICHMOND, VA—Sheriff C.T. Woody, Jr. is pleased to recognize the continued community partnership between Seibert's Towing and Councilwoman Reva Trammel. On Tuesday, February 12, 2015, Sheriff Woody was presented with keys to a 15 passenger van which was purchased by Seibert's Towing Company with the assistance of Councilwoman Reva Trammel.

The Richmond City Sheriff's Office provides transportation for volunteer workers for the City of Richmond's Inmate Work Detail Teams. There was an identified need for additional work vans to accommodate the transportation of the teams and both Seibert's and Councilwoman Trammell responded quickly.

"It is such a wonderful feeling to know that leadership here in the City of Richmond can work in partnership with private business to meet the needs of our community," Said Sheriff Woody.

"Seibert's generosity will allow us to continue to provide transportation for workers to help meet the needs of the City of Richmond which we love." Sheriff Woody continued. "I cannot thank Councilwoman Trammell enough for her immediate response and constituent services to meet the needs of our community."

Sheriff Woody and the Richmond City Sheriff's Office continue to look for new and innovative ways to continue providing services to the citizens of the City of Richmond.
