Parking Restrictions will be In Place during Primary Election

~Ticketing and towing will be enforced for unauthorized vehicles~

RICHMOND, Va. – There will be restricted on-street parking on Tuesday, March 3 during primary day to accommodate chief election officers, those working the polls on Election Day and for voters in some areas. Parking will be prohibited in the following areas from 5 a.m. to 10 p.m.

- Three parking meters/pay stations on the west side of the Main Library (Election Officer placard must be displayed)
- All parking meters/pay stations on 9th and 10th streets between Broad and Marshall streets (Election Officer placard must be displayed)
- All parking meters/pay stations on the north side of Marshall Street between 9th and 10th streets (Election Officer placard must be displayed)
- The north side of Palmyra Avenue in the block of Hermitage Methodist Home (a polling location) will be designated for voters and election officers only
- Three parking meters on the south side of Grace Street in the vicinity of Dominion Place at 1025 West Grace St., which is a polling location
- All parking on the north side of Main Street between North Cherry and North Harrison streets will be designated for voters and election officers only
- All parking on the west side of North Cherry Street between West Main Street and Floyd Avenue will be designated for voters and election officers only
- All parking on the east side of Beaufont Hills Drive between LaCorolla Avenue and Lamar Drive will be designated for voters and election officers only

All parking meters/pay stations around City Hall, as described above, will remain restricted on Wednesday, March 4, from 6 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Towing and ticketing of unauthorized vehicles will be enforced while the parking restrictions are in place. All restricted meters and locations will be marked accordingly. Voters are encouraged to pay attention to all signage.

The City of Richmond Department of Public Works (DPW) is one of only 146 accredited public works agencies in the United States. DPW's portfolio comprises a wide array of services to include leaf collection; street, sidewalk and alley maintenance; trash collection; recycling; urban forestry; signs; signals and pavement markings; grass cutting; graffiti removal; and parking. In addition, DPW issues permits for working in the city's right-of-way, manages Richmond's Bike Share program and maintains the fleet of city vehicles. DPW's operating budget comes from the general fund of the City of Richmond. For more information about DPW services, click here or call 3-1-1.
