Helping to Build Brighter Futures

We Empower You to Thrive!

Eligibility Criteria

About Us

OCWB Career Stations provide a supportive environment to prepare individuals for their next job or career. We collaborate with agencies, employers, organizations, and schools to offer job skills training and supportive services, creating self-sustaining career pathways for our participants.

Who Do We Serve?

- City of Richmond residents
- 18 years old and up
- Returning Citizens
- Individuals who are unemployed
- Individuals who are underemployed (working but making a low wage)

Our Services

- Individualized career assessment
- Individualized action planning
- Career coaching and mentoring
- Job skills training
- Resume and interview help
- Supportive services (i.e. books, tools, supplies for training or employment)
- Referrals for childcare, transportation, and housing

Recruitment Events

We hold weekly virtual and on-site recruitments events. Although job placement is not guaranteed, we work diligently to connect you with employers. For more information, contact Boyd Headley from our Business Services Team:
