FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Richmond City Sheriff's Office partners with 7-Eleven and the Richmond Public Schools for Project Operation Chill

This community-service program promotes public safety and gives back to the youth

Richmond, Va. (6/15/18) – The Richmond City Sheriff's Office is partnering with 7-Eleven to distribute free Slurpee drink coupons to several Richmond Public Elementary School students on Friday, June 15 for their last day of school.

RCSO will provide students with educational public safety material to ensure they have tips to stay safe during the summer. Topics included on the educational card will provide students with the proper steps to take concerning stranger danger and technology safety.

It is our initiative at RCSO to ensure our communities remain safe and to instill in our youth the steps to take to remain vigilant within their surroundings.

RCSO will be visiting the following elementary schools on Friday, June 15th:

- Chimborazo
- Fairfield Court
- George Mason
- George W. Carver
- Ginter Park
- Miles Jones
- Oak Grove
- Swansboro
- Woodville

If you have questions about this event or would like to know further information, please contact Alexis Carey, Communications Officer at alexis.carey@richmondgov.com or call (804) 514-2782.
