City kicks-off annual Citywide Neighborhood Clean-Up Program March 16

~ The program provides residents with two planned opportunities to dispose bulk and brush items ~

RICHMOND, Va. – With spring cleaning right around the corner, the Department of Public Works (DPW) will kick-off the city's annual Neighborhood Clean-Up Program on Saturday, March 16 for residents in the Bellevue/Ginter Park and Washington Park neighborhoods. The citywide clean-up program offers residents in each of the designated 15 neighborhood zones across city with free curbside bulk and brush pickups between March 16 and November 2.

Residents can use the DPW Service Finder to verify clean-Up dates for their neighborhood.

Program details for 2024:

- The program is operational on select Saturdays, March 16 through November 2 (see the specific schedule with dates and locations below)
- All clean-ups are from 8 a.m. until Noon (rain or shine)
 - Residents should place items out Friday evening
- DPW crews will collection items curbside and in alleys (wherever trash is normally placed to be collected)

Examples of acceptable items include:

- Furniture
- Mattresses
- Tires (four per household)
- Appliances and
- Brush (all brush must be cut into four-foot lengths and bundled)

Items NOT collected include:

- Electronics
- Construction debris
- Hazardous waste items and
- Broken glass
